Aw! Come to New York, Said Ward

THE Ward brothers and Houlihan, who have caused much trouble in interscholastic athletics this season, were competitors in one of the relay races at the Pennsylvania meet on Saturday. One of the New York newspaper men there took exception to the assumption of innocence, whereupon he was greeted with the remark from young Mr. Ward: "Aw, you come to New York, where we have regular re-

Because the high school entries for the Amherst Alumnini Association's games were held up while the Public Schools Athletic League inspected the Amherst rules the ex-collegians will allow the schoolboys until May 3, the day of the meet, to forward their entries.

Many schoolboys looked longingly at the opportunity to earn a trip to Amherst, Mass., to the annual interscholastic meet, which will be held on May 17, and to which the winner of each event will be sent, but could not take the chance because the games were not sanctioned until last Thursday. The Alumni body, grasping the situation, immediately extended the time for the entries to close, a fact that gave the otherwise exiles cause for reloicing.
